Vendor Contract

Please read all terms before committing. All fees are non-refundable.

- 1) OUTDOOR BOOTH - 10 x 10 space on grassy area. Must bring your own table & chairs. Tent is recommended but not required. Event is held rain or shine and is non-refundable. All proceeds go directly to the Kewaskum Remembers 9/11 Memorial Building Fund.
- 2) Each crafter is solely responsible for his/her items (this includes taxes, rights, money, products, etc.) We are not responsible for any missing/lost/stolen items. Please do not leave your space unattended. Trusted volunteers will be available to assist you if you should need to step away from your space for any reason.
- 3) Sales of prepared food (for consumption on site - this does not include samples of products or items that are sold for gifts or home consumption), rummage items, firearms / fireworks, illegal items, and pornographic items are prohibited. This is a family friend event; items may be restricted at organizers discretion.
- 4) All displays, products, chairs, etc, must be contained within your assigned booth space or on your table.
- 5) Please hide or remove all storage containers, unused displays, carts, bags, etc. Displays must be neat and professional. You are representing your company and the venue.
- 6) No crafter may close their booth space before 2:00 pm. If you close early or do not show up for your space, you will not be invited back to any future shows with the event organizer. This is strongly enforced.
- 7) Vendors are responsible for maintaining a clean & professional booth throughout the event. This includes removing all trash and all of the vendors belongings at the end of the event. We are not responsible for items left behind.
- 8) EventsWI, Kewaskum Remembers, Kewaskum Area Arts Council and its organizers are not held liable for any thefts of your items from customers or vendors. You are responsible for maintaining your items and watching over your booth. Should the unfortunate happen, please make the organizer aware of such actions and we will help in the best way we can.
- 9) All vendors are expected to participate in advertising. This includes word of mouth, posting the event online (your blog, Facebook page, website, etc.), & any other means of advertising you deem appropriate. There will be a Facebook event page set up which you are encouraged to invite your contacts to join. You can find the link by visiting our Facebook page www.facebook.com/eventswi
- 10) Each space may exhibit items from only one company. Multi-vendor booths are not permitted.
- 11) Set up will begin at 7:00 AM. Each crafter and vendor must be setup and by 8:30am. This is due to the parade and presentation taking place from 8:46am until 10:00am. It is highly recommended that each vendor be in attendance for the ceremony and presentation portion of the day. If you are unable to walk to the presentation area, we ask that you please respect the ceremony, speakers and personnel and remain silent. NO SALES ARE TO BE MADE PRIOR TO 10AM. If you require more time for setup please contact us to discuss. NO LATE VENDORS WILL BE ADMITTED. ROADS WILL BE CLOSED.
- 12) All contact between organizer and vendors will be via email. Please check your email regularly so you do not miss important information about the event. If you do not have an email address, please note that in the email section of the application and provide a working phone number for us to contact you should the need arise.
- 13) The vendor name who is listed on the event application must be present the entire day. It is your responsibility to inform anyone working with you of these terms.
- 14) All vehicles must be moved a safe distance from the building after unloading to allow for customer parking.
- 15) Any returned or cancelled checks will be charged a $25 processing fee.
- 16) Last minute space openings & waiting list vendors are require to pay in cash upon arrival prior to setting up their space. Someone elses cancelation does not equal a free spot for a wait list rep.

ALL proceeds from this event will be donated directly to the Kewaskum Remembers Memorial Fund.
